EGSG ANNOUNCES NEW ADDITION OF U.S. SENATE LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Ericka King joins government relations practice from the office of Senator Rand Paul

Washington—Former U.S. Rep. Tom Graves, President and CEO of Ervin Graves Strategy Group (EGSG), announced today that Ericka King, former Legislative Counsel to U.S. Senator Rand Paul of Kentucky, has joined EGSG as a Vice President in the government relations practice.

“We’re thrilled to announce Ericka as the newest addition to our team,” said Graves. “Her experience and expertise on a wide range of issues, including energy, agriculture and environment, is an added advantage to the EGSG team and our clients. Her Tennessee roots, along with her work within the Kentucky and Mississippi delegations, will position us to continue exceeding the needs of our client portfolio.”

King began her career in January 2017, spending her final semester of law school as a legal and legislative intern to former Congressman Gregg Harper of Mississippi and the Committee on House Administration. After graduation, she joined the office of Senator Paul. During her time in the Senate, King served as the Senator’s lead advisor on education, energy, agriculture, environment, and housing policy.

EGSG Managing Director Joe Kasper added, “Ericka is a strong addition to our team, and we’re excited for what she’ll contribute to our continued growth and fostering new opportunities and talent. Her experience provides an extraordinary dimension to our group, underscoring the diversity of our clients and our commitment to their success.”

The addition of King signals the accelerated expansion of EGSG and its partnership with more than 50 organizations to support their priorities and interests across the federal government.
