EGSG RECOGNIZED AS A 2021 TOP-PERFORMING LOBBYING FIRM

Ervin Graves Strategy Group places in top 100 of Bloomberg Government's "2021 Top-Performing Lobbying Firms"

Washington – Ervin Graves Strategy Group (EGSG) has been recognized as a leading federal lobbying firm in Bloomberg Government's "2021 Top-Performing Lobbying Firms." Among the 350 firms ranked, EGSG placed in the top 100 under an evaluation criteria of performance metrics.

The EGSG team consists of a diverse group of professionals with decades of government experience across the U.S. Congress and Executive Branch, and further complemented by an enduring record of military service among its leadership.

"This acknowledgement is a testament to the quality of our team, the firm's legacy and the impressive growth we've experienced," said EGSG President and CEO, Tom Graves.

Bloomberg Government's recognition further underscores EGSG's accelerated expansion in the last year, with the firm now supporting the priorities and interests of more than 50 partner organizations. EGSG remains committed to its clients and continuing to forge creative solutions to the nation's toughest challenges.
